received 2011 Reserve Champion for the Eastern States Dressage and Combined Test Association (ESDCTA) Year-End awards for Starter Rider. The ESDCTA is a non-profit educational organization designed to advance the development of the art and sport of dressage and eventing. Each year, the organization gives awards to those riders who submit the highest median score from 5 shows. Catherine's median score for walk/trot dressage tests was 67.5, earning her Reserve Champion. This season Catherine competed at Oxbow Stables, High Point Equestrian Center, and the ESDCTA Dressage Championship Show at the Horse Park of New Jersey.
